

What's keeping you up at night?

Complying with overtime laws, handbook updates, hiring and firing, handling investigations, navigating unemployment—the field of human resources is ever-changing. It can be especially challenging for small to mid-sized businesses with limited in-house resources.

Shultz Huber & Associates is here to help, whether you need additional expertise or someone who can manage all of your HR needs. We offer affordable packages and scalable services, giving you the exact assistance you need, when you need it.

We offer a full-range of consulting services, including:

- ◆ Labor and union relations and negotiations
- ◆ Employee policy and procedure manuals
- ◆ Benefits consulting and administration
- ◆ Recruitment and employment support
- ◆ Training programs and policies
- ◆ HR department management, supervision and development

For a more detailed list, contact us or visit us online at sha-cpa.com.

Partnering with SH&A means you'll have access to a diverse group of professionals. Our team members work with businesses of all sizes in a variety of industries. We'll put that experience to work to find the right solutions to your HR challenges.

Contact us to see how we can help.
sha-cpa.com HumanResources@sha-cpa.com